

The Lime Trees at Robert Mellors

March 2019

Marie and Daniella would like to welcome you all back to The Lime Trees after your short break. Hope you all had fun and laughter.

This term we are going to change the roleplay corner to Hairdressing which the children have requested.

- We will also visit World Book/Science alongside school Activities
- Guess the Author, bring your favourite book
- Making volcanos

About our lovely team

Daniella is the Key Worker for the Early Years Foundation children and will be asking parents and school for children's next steps. Please do not hesitate to speak to Daniella should you have any questions regarding your child's next steps.

Susan Green has recently joined our team and has been getting to know the children and parents. Susan has an NNEB in childcare and has over 10 years' experience working with children. Thank you to parents and children who have made Susan so welcome.

Action Plan

The New Action plan has now been put up in the entrance for parents to read. We welcome all feedback any time. This helps us to make sure the club is giving the best quality provision. We also have You spoke ...We listened. If you have any suggestions to improve the club please do let us know.

Tips and activities at home

This half term we have put together take-home resources for you and your children to get creative with. We would love to see and hear about your creations and what other take home resources you would like. Look out for the creative packs on the information table labelled "What can you create."

You Spoke: We listened

You spoke: Could you make sure my son hands in his dinner money and letter please.

We Listened: We will ensure that this is done and handed over to the staff concerned.
